

ChatGPT vs. Claude: Which Is Right for You?

Side-by-side comparison of two popular AI assistants.

Both are excellent. Both are free to try. Here's how to choose.

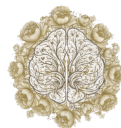

Head-to-Head Comparison

	ChatGPT	Claude
Made by	OpenAI	Anthropic
Launched	Nov 2022	Mar 2023
Best for	Creative writing, brainstorming, casual chat	Deep analysis, long documents, structured tasks
Strengths	Fluent storytelling, fun tone, image generation (paid), huge plugin ecosystem	Very long inputs (100k+ words), detailed analysis, code, tends to say "I don't know" rather than guess
Free tier	Yes — GPT-4o limited	Yes — Claude 3.5 Sonnet
Paid tier	$20/month — more speed, newer models, DALL-E images	$20/month — more usage, advanced model, projects
Verdict	Start here for creative tasks	Start here for research & analysis

How to Choose

- 1 Try Both First
Both have free tiers. Sign up and test with the same prompt. You'll feel which one clicks for your use case.
- 2 For Creative Work — Start with ChatGPT
Writing stories, brainstorming, casual chat, or anything requiring a fun, fluid voice. ChatGPT often wins here.
- 3 For Analysis & Research — Start with Claude
Analyzing documents, writing structured reports, coding, or anything requiring careful, nuanced thinking. Claude tends to shine.
- 4 Use Both — You Don't Have to Pick
Many people use ChatGPT for creativity and Claude for thinking. Free tiers mean you can have both open at once.

*Recommendation for beginners: start with Claude (claude.ai).
It's built to be helpful, honest, and thoughtful — a great first AI experience.*

Stupid Smart With AI

Quick-Start Guide

ai@wearestupidsmart.com